MENDOCINO ROADS GET LARGE SLICE

$299,000 Is County's Part of New Work's Program Just Approved

Of the $37,807,000 budget for new highway construction, just approved by Governor Merriam, Mendocino county will receive $299,000. This sum is allowed to take care of three jobs. Of interest to the people of this county, also, is the allotment of $68,000 to Lake county for the construction of the Upper Lake to Rasmussen ranch road.

Mendocino's allotment is for the Outlet to Ryan creek road, $196,000; the Eleven Oaks road to Willits, $60,000, and Clow creek and Oaks line change, $43,000.

The new budget provides for 181 district highway jobs in the state, which range in cost from a few thousands of dollars to $4,300,000 allowed for the Golden Gate bridge approaches and the San Francisco-Oakland bridge. Northern California will get $19,735,254 of the new construction proposed.

The sum of $15,215,500 allotted to maintenance keeps 14,000 miles of primary and secondary highways of California's system in perfect condition. This work includes bridge repair and painting, slide removal, storm damage repair, reoiling of roadway surface and shoulders, snow removal on 3,000 miles of highway, traffic striping, repairing guard rails and installing signs and signals.

Lea Given Place On Control Committee

Congressman Clarence F. Lea was named by California, Oregon and Washington Democrats as their member of the house Steering committee, the body which maps out the program to be laid before congress and decides upon the order in which legislation shall have consideration. The selection was made by unanimous choice.

As chairman of the Democratic caucus, Lea was an ex-officio member of the Steering committee last year. In his election he succeeds Congressman Sam Hill of Washington as committee member for the Fifteenth zone.

Mrs. Nellie Hopper Died Last Tuesday; Final Rites Today

Ukiah friends of Mrs. Nellie Hopper were deeply grieved to learn she had failed to survive a major operation, performed in a San Francisco hospital, and had passed away Tuesday afternoon following a stroke, which came after she was apparently on the way to restored health.

In an effort to save her life, when her condition became alarming, following the stroke, a blood transfusion was resorted to, her son Dr. Harry Hopper of this city, giving his blood for the effort.

Mrs. Hopper was the widow of the late Wesley Hopper, a prominent former resident of Santa Rosa, who died about 10 years ago.

Following the death of her husband, Mrs. Hopper removed from her Sonoma county home to Ukiah, where she had since lived, and where she was widely known and respected and beloved of her many friends. Of late she had made her home with her son on his ranch east of Ukiah.

Deceased is survived by her two children, Dr. Harry Hopper of this city and Mrs. Gerald Griffen of Santa Rosa. Mrs. Pearl Haehl of Ukiah and Mrs. Flora Norris of Oakland are her sisters. A brother lives in Washington.

Funera services will be held this Friday morning at 11 o'clock with the Eversole Mortuary in charge of the arrangements.

Following the funeral the body will be taken to Petaluma and interred in the McNear cemetery at 2:30 p. m.

WORSWICK SPEAKS ON SALESMANSHIP

Home-Owned Business Apostle Arouses Local Merchants to New Endeavors

Heralded as a bundle of human dynamite, Sam Worswick, director of educational activities of the Allied Independent Merchants and Home-Owned Businesses of California, justified in every detail his reputation when he addressed a meeting of the Ukiah branch of the organization last Tuesday evening. Worswick had something to say, and the way he said it gave Ukiah business men enough mental "chow" to keep them chewing for several months.

Worswick paid his respects to the chain stores in a respectful way, emphasizing that the mission of the home-owned business organization is not to villify the chain store, but to meet it and down it in fair competition. To this end it is necessary that the home-owned merchant put his house in order, eliminate old equipment and ideas, educate his employees in the elements of good salesmanship and make his customers like to come in and trade. A campaign of propaganda calculated to put the liberty bell, the emblem of the organization, into the forefront of the public consciousness, was outlined. Worswick referred to the slogan, "57", of the Heinz people, which has come invariably to suggest pickles; the picture of the Dutch girl, coupled in the public mind with Dutch Cleaner; "It floats," which never fails to suggest the companion words, "Ivory Soap." He stated that the program of advertising contemplated for the home-owned organization would make the bell so famous that the sound even of a cowbell would bring to mind the words "Home-Owned Business."

In this connection a cooking school for Ukiah women in the immediate future, an essay contest for high school students, and a hobby fair for grammar schools are planned. Other ideas will be carried out as fast as they can be developed.

The cooking school is to be put on January 30 and 31 and February 1. Miss Grace Emery is chairman of the committee in charge and has appointed Mrs. Alice Bertsch and Secretary Henrich of the Home-Owned Business organization of Ukiah as her assistants, with auxiliary committees to be appointed later.

The meeting Tuesday chose an executive committee consisting of Stanley Watson, Rex Lieurance, Guy Redwine, N. A. Bard, Mrs. Lynn Foster and Harry Shimmin. Nine delegates were appointed to attend the state

WORK IS STARTED ON BIRTHDAY BALL

Ten Committees Named to Carry Out Plans For the Second Annual Dance

Members appointed by the various clubs and civic and patriotic organizations, to act with General Chairman J. P. Mason in formulating plans and making arrangements for the President's Birthday Ball of January 30, met in the Canton room of the Palace hotel last Monday night and were placed on the various committees by the general chairman.

Practically all organizations had named their members for the affair and there was a good attendance. Mr. Mason went into details in explaining the purpose of this second annual birthday ball.

As has been explained by the Dispatch-Democrat, money raised this year will be divided 30-70; the 70% goes into a local fund for the use of the local permanent committee in the treatment of local victims of infantile paralysis; the 30% goes to a committee, to be named by the president, for the continuation of research work, in the effort to find a cure for the disease.

It was the understanding of the meeting that the funds retained in the local treasury were not to be considered as for use only of victims within the limits of this city, but were to be considered as funds for the community within reasonable limits contiguous to Ukiah.

The proposition to give a supper before the dance, as a means of raising additional funds, did not meet with approval and was abandoned. It was decided, however, to provide refreshments at the ball and a committee named for that purpose.

Mr. Mason stressed the urgency of economy in all matters pertaining to the affair, and pointed out that the expense connected with the dance last year cut the available fund to a very small portion of the gross receipts. He hoped to be able to secure the hall and the music without any considerable cash outlay, and the committees appointed to care for those two particulars were asked to polish up their salesmanship.

General Chairman—J. P. Mason.

Secretary-Treasurer—G. V. Wallach.

Publicity—Karl Davis, chairman, Mrs. Olive E. Busch, Joan Fraser, G. I. Wright, H. M. Ivey.

Tickets and Sales—E. A. Eversole, chairman, Dr. Helen Starbuck, Irving

Offices on the second floor of the Marks building were opened by the SERA last Monday with Mrs. Alexander of Ukiah in charge as clerk and stenographer, who is ready to take enrollment of those seeking employment through this federal agency.

With the coming of M. Schrier, SERA social worker, the organization of the local office will be completed and activities begun, looking toward the selection of projects within the county to which the agency can lend its service.

It is more than probable that one or more of the activities outlined in the Dispatch-Democrat last week will be undertaken as quickly as arrangements can be made for their undertaking.

It should be understood by those seeking work under the SERA, who are registered with the Federal Reemployment Service, of which J. B. Doffiemeyer is in charge, that registration with the SERA is necessary to obtain such work. If employed permanently through the reemployment service, do not seek work with the SERA, as this service is calculated for those who are without employment, or who are employed only temporarily or part time.

How This Small Town Boy Made Good In a Big Way

When Others Were Saying: It Can't Be Done

FORREST HUGHES Was Doing It

This is the story of how a small town boy made good in a big way at a time when opportunities to make good were few, and widely separated.

Forrest Hughes, local representative of the Studebaker company for the past 11 months, refused to recognize the late depression as anything more than a challenge for redoubled effort, and out of the "depressing" conditions of that period has wrung success, all the more successful because of the tough going. "His percentage of business is twice that of the average obtained by Studebaker dealers the country over," says his boss, E. A. Eymann of Santa Rosa.

But back of this success there is something more than push and perseverance: "Frosty" knows his automobile, inside and out, and knowing them was fortunate in securing a car which he could give his unqualified commendation; and this is a disparagement on no other car sold in this territory. With a Studebaker contract signed he was standing on high ground from which he surveyed his field and went about the business of selling Studebaker cars and trucks.

A lineal descendant of pioneers, "Frosty" was equipped by nature to succeed in his undertakings. His great-grandfather was a pioneer, and among other sturdy souls of his day treeked across the plains with the covered wagon trains. His grandfather was a pioneer minister and pastor of the First Christian church of Ukiah, 35 years ago. Forrest's parents, Albert T. and Taza Martel Hughes, were Potter Valley folks and it was there that he received his schooling. For a time after finishing school he engaged in ranching. Among his first advents into the automobile business was with Steiert, Andrews & Ford, local Ford sales and service firm. There he remained for two and a half years, then purchased a lease on the R. B. Saunders Service Station on North State street. In the 10 months he operated that business Frosty's Texaco Service was one of the busiest spots in Ukiah.

It was inevitable that something bigger and better would come his way in due time and that he would be ready for the opportunity. It came in the person of Mr. E. A. Eymann, who was on the lookout for the right man to handle the Studebaker sales in Ukiah and vicinity. What has been accomplished and what Mr. Eymann thinks of his selection can best be understood by reading that gentleman's own words.

E. A. EYMANN MOTOR CAR COMPANY
E. A. EYMANN, Prop.
Studebaker-Rockne Dealer
Santa Rosa

During the past few years, the time that most of us have come to know as the 'depression', the belief has been quite common that there just wasn't enough business anywhere for anyone to make even a decent living. It is very refreshing then to run across someone who in spite of all obstacles has made an outstanding success of something that he has undertaken. In other words he has accomplished a thing that was thought by many to be impossible until business once more became normal. Such a person is Forrest Hughes, still in his twenties, who is equipped with plenty of enthusiasm, ambition and courage and is unafraid of hard work.

As distributor for Studebaker cars and trucks in Sonoma, Mendocino, and Lake Counties, we were interested in securing a representative for our product in Ukiah and vicinity and Forrest Hughes was recommended to us. He did not accept our proposition on the first presentation but, in February 1934, after careful investigation of its possibilities and due consideration of the quality of the merchandise, he signed a contract with Studebaker. The rest is history and the records of the Division of Motor Vehicles at Sacramento tell the story. His percentage of business obtained is twice that of the average obtained by Studebaker dealers the country over. A share of Mr. Hughes' success must be attributed to the product that he is selling but a large part must go to him for his untiring effort in behalf of Studebaker cars and trucks. In these days of keen competition no car will sell itself regardless of how popular it may be with the buying public, and one thing that is necessary is hard conscientious effort and this, "Frosty," as he is known to his friends, has supplied.

The foregoing is a record of achievement which would be hard to duplicate. No small amount of Mr. Hughes' success is due to his liberal advertising, all of which has reached his territory through space used by him in the DISPATCH - DEMOCRAT. Not only has Mr. Hughes used this paper exclusively as a medium for advertising his Studebaker cars, he has placed with us his advertising of every nature connected with his sales. And always with the same gratifying success.

BOONVILLE, Jan. 9.—The Anderson Valley Unity club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Witherell, with Mrs. Witherell and Mrs. Dave Boyd as hostesses. Following the business session the topic of the day, "Current Events," was ably handled by Mrs. Henry DeRosier and refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting will be January 19, with Mrs. R. H. Rawles, Mrs. B. M. Field and Mrs. V. R. Rawles as hostesses and "California Authors" as the topic. Mrs. F. H. Brown and Mrs. W. E. Cureton will be leaders.

Mrs. John Smith was advised by cablegram that her mother, Mrs. Schmidt, who is in Germany, will return to her home in Navarro as soon as reservation can be arranged. Mrs. Smith motored to San Francisco Saturday to complete arrangements for her mother's return. It was understood here at the time Mrs. Schmidt left for Germany she intended to make her home there; she evidently has changed her mind after passing the winter in Germany.

F. W. Frye and small daughters, Virginia and Patricia, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clay left Sunday for their home in Eureka where Mr. Frye is a member of the high school faculty. Other holiday guests at the Clay home were their sons, R. C. Clay of Woodland, E. H. Clay of Courtland, and Mrs. Clay's sister, Mrs. Eva Simpson, also of Courtland.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barnes have had as their guests over the holiday, Mr. and Mrs. Norton Nelson and family of Oakland. Mrs. Nelson is a sister of Mrs. Barnes.

Hamilton as district attorney respectively. The holdover supervisors are E. M. Hiatt, chairman, and J. G. Foster and the new members are G. B. Mathers, H. Haas and C. N. Curley. Sheriff Standley has appointed the following deputies: Hopland, Arthur Daw; Little Lake, N. P. Rogers; Ten Mile, A. Van Vleck; Ukiah, Reuben Moore, W. N. Stapp and F. C. Albertson; Westport, Thomas Flynn. County Clerk Cunningham has appointed Ben W. Day as his deputy. Supervisors Foster, of the third district, and Curley, of the fifth district drew the lots for the two two-year terms and the remaining three for the three four-year terms. C. H. Yates resigned as justice of Ukiah township and T. L. Barnes was appointed to fill the vacancy. S. H. Simonds was appointed justice of the peace of Arena township.

The rainfall for the season to date is 15.40 inches.

Willits News

WILLITS, Jan. 8.—We now have had our first two feet of rain and we have a small installment on the second allotment. This morning the rain guage showed that we have had 24.22 inches for the season. The last storm filled up the temporary lake at the lower end of this valley and all of the streams are running banks full . This morning it is rather cool on account of the large quantities of snow on the higher mountains.

May Ship Hay

Harvey Reynolds has been in correspondence with the alphabet organization which is extending drought relief, with headquarters in Kansas City. He has quoted a price on 30 carloads of baled hay f. o. b. Willits and has been notified that the government will probably be in the market again for hay within a few weeks. On account of the open winter, abundant rainfall and other favorable conditions, it now looks very much as if this section will have a large carryover of hay we do not need and which is very badly needed in the east. Hay deteriorates more rapidly than most crops, as mice and rats add to the weather damage. If our ranchers can sell their surplus hay at a fair price it looks as if this proposition will work out to everybody's advantage.

10,000 Railroad Ties

Wes Atterbury has taken a contract for delivering 10,000 railroad ties at Ten Mile landing next summer where they will be loaded on a boat bound for the Hawaiian islands. The ties will be cut in Jackson valley and there will be about an 8-mile downhill haul to the landing. On account of climatic conditions and insect pests it has been found that redwood ties last the longest in tropical climates. Even these ties have to be given a creosote both before they are laid and the termites and other pests do not relish the taste of wood treated in this manner. In addition to this, Atterbury has contracts for thousands of grape stakes and hop poles and there is now more work for woodsmen in that locality than there has been for years.

Storm Damage

Three small bridges went out in Jackson valley during the big storm last month. One span of the big bridge across Eel river was also destroyed. Ernest Rupe went up with a crew of local men and made the necessary repairs. During that storm the wind was terrific and blew over a number of large trees.

Opened New Store

Bert DeVaul has just opened another store in Jackson valley, some miles beyond Branscomb. In addition to the store he will operate a service station and restaurant.

Distemper Among Dogs

Quite a lot of distemper among dogs has been reported in this vicinity recently. Owners of pet animals are warned to keep their dogs at home until the epidemic is over.

It's a Boy

Word was received here a few days ago that a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Sturges of Napa on Christmas day. Sturges was the first manager of the Willits branch of the Purity store and is well known here.

Down With Typhoid

Mrs. S. Samuelson, nee Carrie Southard, our former wellknown citizen, is reported as being dangerously ill with typhoid fever at her home in Berkeley. First her son Ward was stricken with the scourge and his case was so bad that his mother gave him a blood transfusion and it is thought possoble that she contracted the disease in this manner.

Liquor Ordinance

An ordinance aimed at regulating the sale of hard liquor in restaurants was introduced and had its first reading at the regular monthly meeting of our town trustees Monday night.

Under the terms of this ordinance all booths must be removed from restaurants where hard liquor is sold and where there is public dancing. Considerable complaint had been lodged against one particular place in which, so it is alleged, considerable drinking has been taking place by both men and women.

Kill More Varmints

Vic Tuck, government hunter, came in from the hills today and tells us that among the varmints killed last month was a big coyote on the Clark Hill ranch at Farley. This particular coyote is charged with killing a number of Hill's sheep. In addition to this, three wildcats were killed on the Eden valley ranch and four wildcats in the Sherwood valley district. Mr. Tuck has just received an S. O. S. to go up to the Usal section where a coyote, or some other kind of varmint, is killing sheep on the Thomas ranch. He is leaving today with his pack of trained dogs.

MENDOCINO NOTES

MENDOCINO, Jan. 6.—The Mendocino Coast Chamber of Commerce held its regular meeting in the Community club building at Fort Bragg Thursday evening of last week, with a representative number present, many being detained by reason of the storm. Roads, highways, fish and game came in for considerable of the discussion, along with plans for increasing the membership during the coming year. During the present month there will be started a campaign for new members, along with the drive for renewal of the membership of the present roll and of those who had dropped out. Meetings of the body will not be confined to any particular place, but will shift from town to town all along the coats where membership is obtained. The next meeting is to be held here, in Hotel Mendocino, February 8.

Last Thursday, shortly after noon, a southwester broke over this section, with the accompanying wind so strong as to blow down fences, and the rain which fell drenched the section as few recent storms have done.

Night school classes, which have been conducted at the high school will not open here until further announcement is made by Principal Neil Parsons. This announcement is expected at an early date.

The car of Clarence Ponts of Caspar missed the Russian Gulch bridge last Friday night as he was returning home from Mendocino and crashed through a fence, rolled down the hill and brought up against a tree at the bottom. Clarence escaped without injury and the car was not badly damaged. A broken wishbone was the cause of the car going out of control.

The total rainfall to date is 18.64 inches, the last storm bringing down 1.38 inches, according to the records kept by Relmond Smith of East Mendocino.

Steelhead, weighing all the way from 5 to 15 pounds are being taken from the streams since the rainy weather has swollen them to some extent along the coast. The limit is two fish a day, but numerous stories are going the rounds of catches as high as 30 on one day and others of 8 to 10, which is a good way to bring steelhead sport to an end, if indulged in by all who visit the coast.

The new shoreline road has held up well during the past heavy storms and have proven a source of satisfaction to all who have had occasion to use it of late. The bridges are all in good repair and travel over this route is safe and satisfactory.

At the first post-holiday meeting of the Ladies aid the members were happily surprised to learn of an account with the Wells Fargo & Union Trust company of San Francisco, which had lain dormant for a number of years, and had accumulated quite a tidy sum of interest to the credit of the aid.

The business men will resume their Thursday luncheons this week at the Community club, with Mrs. Ethel Wintzer in charge of the arrangements for the luncheon. The entertainment program is already prepared and plans have been made to start the new year out enthusiastically. The luncheon will start promptly at 12:05.

The next meeting of the Tuesday Evening Bridge club will be with Mrs. Louie Anderson on January 15.

SOCIETY

Home, Community and School, P.-T. A. Fields

Mrs. Joseph E. Morcombe, regional director of publicity of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, gave her opinion of what parent-teacher women are thinking about in a long article recently published in San Francisco newspapers. As a premises for her conclusions she accepted the fact that the average parent-teacher member is not only a homemaker but a housekeeper, a person who employs her hands with tasks so familiar that her subconscious self controls the work of her mind over many fields.

"A parent-teacher woman's thoughts are as varied as those of her specialized sister's," according to Mrs. Morcombe. "The gray matter may be exercised in inventing a robot that might be placed in the center of the room; then with the door closed, an electric button pressed, and a short lapse of time, every chair rung, every niche in the bric-a-brac, every bit of china, brass, or silk, made dust-free, polished and resplendent in pristine freshness. But here we are to deal with what these parent-teacher members are thinking in regard to their objective in child welfare.

"Home, school and community are their fields, with home first. How can the home be made the center of family life? It is no longer sufficient to feed and clothe and keep fit and clean the body. Programs that come over the radio must be evaluated; newspapers and magazines that enter the home must be interpreted to the immature mind: books must be carefully chosen. Knowledge of the unclean and unwholesome cannot be wholly shut out of the home, but choice of the pure and wholesome can be instilled in the minds of parents and children. How to accomplish all this is an individual problem for each home, and the solution can only be arrived at by clear and definite analysis.

"The school and what it does to the child is for every parent a vital subject for thought. Granted that certain fundamental principles of learning how to live (and that is what education should mean) are unchangeable, does it follow that the methods by which these are impressed upon the minds of the children are also unchangeable? Or again, does it follow that because methods may be improved upon, that the children should be merely subjects for experimentation? If football is an essential part of the school, why not give physical training to every child, equaling in cost and attention that bestowed on those playing football? And what kind of physical training would achieve the most desirable results?

"Teachers' positions should not be held at the whim of the trustees or politicians, but how to keep teachers themselves from forgetting the job in the politics of working for remuneration, is also a problem. Disgruntled parents should not be allowed to make life miserable for a teacher. But neither should an efficient or partisan teacher have the opportunity to cripple, stunt or warp the mind of a child. Professional security for the teacher must never be secured at the cost of mental insecurity for the child. And that is a problem that needs thinking through.

"The world cannot be shut out of the home, therefore the thought of the home-maker must be concerned with the community. As a parent teacher member she is non-partisan, but she must take a very definite stand upon every measure which influences home and children. And so, first of all she thinks as to why, when measures are given to the people to be voted upon, they are couched in language purposely obscure rather than clearly revealing their intent. Should not the public demand that all such subterfuges be abolished? Should not the parents ask that for the growing generation there be fewer laws, and that emphasis in law training be on how such laws must be kept, and not how evasion may be justified? And why not think of qualifications for men in public places, so that their records will foster in the minds of children the conviction that the government and all its interests constitute a sacred trust and not a 'pork barrel' proposition?"

POST-AUXILIAY DINNER

The next meeting of Lewis White Post No. 76, American Legion, will be a joint supper meeting of the post and auxiliary members, after the business is disposed of. The first meeting in February will be marked by the pay-off dinner which is to be the reward of the winners of the two membership teams, headed by W. H. Salls and D. G. Macmillan. The contest will close in time for the winner to become known and for the loser to prepare the banquet.

Business Women's Club Happy New Year Meeting

Mrs. Leila Vevoda, vice president of the Business and Professional Women's club, as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Genevieve Cox, Mrs. Mildred Smith and Mrs. Rose Copsey, composing the hostess committee, entertained the club in the Canton room of the Palace hotel, Thursday evening of last week, in an elaborate New Year event of many delightful particulars.

Mrs. Ardis Roberts and Mrs. Drusia Harris were named to represent the club on the general committee for the President's Birthday Ball, to be given January 30.

Through Miss Joan Fraser, chairman of publicity, it was learned that the club may have the privilege of meeting Mrs. May Pettingill of Eureka, first vice president of the Redwood Empire District No. 7, California Federation of Business and Professional Women, who will make several trips through this city during the coming months.

Miss Grace Emery, chairman of the legislative committee, spoke of the Seventy-fourth congress being convened in Washington that morning and of the election of Joseph W. Byrnes of Tennessee, as speaker of the House of Representatives.

The next meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Drusia Harris, Miss Grace Emery, Mrs. Bertha Emery and Mrs. Mary Louise Tartaglia.

ENDEAVOR INSTITUTE

Humboldt, Lake, Marin, Mendocino, Napa and Sonoma counties, included in the Redwood Empire district of the Christian Endeavor, will send delegates to Healdsburg next Saturday and Sunday to the district institute. The Saturday meeting will be featured by the presence of Paul Brown, Pacific coast secretary of the Endeavor, who will be the principal speaker of the day. The Sunday meeting will have Elbert Banks, president of the Lake-Mendocino County Endeavor union, who will speak in the afternoon. His subject will be "Efficiency in Christian Endeavor Work." Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Isaacson of the Ukiah Christian church will accompany a delegation from here. Rev. Isaacson will conduct services there Sunday.

Saturday Club Meeting Interesting and Instructive

The interesting and instructive report on the subject of prospective state and national legislation by Mrs. W. D. L. Held representing the American Citizenship section of the Saturday Afternoon club was an outstanding feature of the meeting of that organization which was held at the clubhouse, Saturday, with Mrs. Louise A. Bernhard presiding. The legislative bodies of both the state and nation are in session, organized, and ready for action, and the people are awaiting the outcome on which their well-being depends. She discussed in a very capable and comprehensive manner the important questions at issue, predominant among which are the spending program, the growing deficit and taxation, dealing in some detail with unemployment relief, public works, the bonus bill, the Townsend plan, farm relief, crop control, and lastly with the absorbing subject of taxation and the dread and danger of monetary inflation. The Citizenship section will attempt to have such a report given at each meeting until we learn the best, or the worst, that is coming along the legislative route.

Mrs. Olive E. Busch representing the Current Events section of the club recounted happenings of world-wide scope, illustrating the advance of science, particularly the great, forward strides and temporary setbacks of aviation, the restlessness and discontent of the peoples of the earth, the changing forms of government, and the deviating religious and moral trends.

Mrs. Louise A. Bernhard, president, reviewed the efforts of the club to finance the purchase of their clubhouse over a period of eight years. She said title to the building was acquired during the administration of Mrs. W. E. Williams in 1927. At that time the club had $2,500 on hand in a building fund and $3,500 was raised by selling bonds. The property cost $11,500, and a cash payment of $6,000 was made, and a mortgage given for $5,500. The bonds have all been paid and the mortgage has been reduced $1,500, leaving an unpaid balance of $4,000. It is considered that the club has been very successful in financing the venture, having paid $7,500 of the principal in eight years, which with interest, is considerably more than $1,000 per year.

Mrs. A. H. Martin, chairman of the afternoon, had planned a program relating to boys' and girls' work. As the first speaker of the meeting, she presented C. A. Bernhard, who discussed in a very lucid and appealing manner objectives of Boy Scout work. The second speaker introduced by Mrs. Martin was Miss Vontrue Logsdon, who spoke interestingly of 4-H club work and its purposes and attainments. The concluding speaker, Mrs. N. G. Buhn, recounted the history of Camp Fire Girls' work in this community. She denominated Miss Grace Toles as the founder of the project in this vicinity, and highly commended the manner in which the work was carried forward, subsequently, by Mrs. Martha Toles. The Fravel brothers favored an appreciative audience with several selections. Bobbie Mason accompanied on the piano by Miss Marjorie Shuckman, sang in a manner that won him much applause and praise, a group of numbers entitled, "Stay as Sweet as You Are," "My Blue Heaven," and "The Object of My Affections." A delicious two-course refreshment service was enjoyed at small tables, decorated in alternate green and yellow color schemes and provided with beautiful center pieces of lovely long-stemmed English violets.

The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Lottie Collins, Mrs. E. H. Benson, Miss Grace Emery, Mrs. Elmer Purdy, and Mrs. P. B. Westerman. Mrs. A. L. Tracy, who has been absent from many meetings on account of illness, was in attendance and was very cordially welcomed. Mrs. Tracy was the efficient president of the club in 1931-32.

GAVE PARTY FOR GUEST

Following the basketball game last Friday evening a number of the school friends of Miss Betty Brazier were entertained at the Brazier residence on west Standley street, invited to meet Freeman Bishop, of Piedmont, who was a guest in the Brazier home over the holiday week. Miss Bonnibel Thornton, recently returned from a trip to the Hawaiian Islands, was among the guests and warmly welcomed home by her friends. Those present were Misses Marjorie Milne, Elberta and Lorraine Mankins, Barbara Moulton, Virginia McGarvey, Eloise Thomas, Virginia Mustard, Janet Brawn, Bonnibel Thornton and Betty Brazier, and the following young gentlemen: Stanley and James Hildreth, Tom Cleland, Jack Russell, Horace Ivey, William Ingham, Dick Davis, Chaplin Williams and Frank Larsen.

ANOTHER SATURDAY DANCE

Plans are being made for another Saturday Afternoon club dance to be given in the club house, Saturday evening, January 26, following the success of the last dance, which was largely attended and provided an evening of superb social diversion for a delighted crowd of folks—young, and older. Mrs. Florence Preston is chairman of the January committee and will have charge of the arrangements. Kelly's Vagabonds have been engaged to furnish the music.

Anderson Valley Folks Hold Happy Family Reunion

At midnight, a delicious turkey supper was served. A very enjoyable evening was spent in card playing and games.

The event was a gathering of the former Holmberg girls, who are Mrs. F. B. Cook, Mrs. William Bryan, Mrs. Martin Silvers, Mrs. Henry DeRosier and Mrs. Oliver Moore.

Those who enjoyed the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Cook, Wilson Cook, Misses Cleone and Bonnie Cook, Mr. and Mrs. William Bryan of Fort Bragg, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Silvers of Philo, Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeRosier, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hulbert and baby, Donnal May, of Boonville.

Miss Clora Cook, who is taking nurses training in the San Francisco Children's hospital, was unable to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Moore sent their regrets, not being able attend.

P.-T. A. Officers Will Address Meet At Sonoma

Mrs. C. B. Clark, first vice president, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, will emphasize "Leadership" at the school of instruction to be conducted by her at the meeting of the board of managers, Fourteenth district, C. C. P. T., January 17, in the Congregational church, Sonoma, following the morning business session. Mrs. F. A. Harmon, Hopland, director of Home Service, will tell the workings of her department. Mrs. N. C. Lundgren, San Rafael, chairman finance and budget, will speak briefly on that subject. District President Mrs. Jerome O. Cross, Santa Rosa, will preside throughout the day, which is planned to be both interesting and helpful to those working for the P.-T. A. objective of child welfare.

'The Fourth Wise Man' Revealed to Santa Rosa Club

The identity of "The Fourth Wise Man" was revealed to the members of the Santa Rosa Saturday Afternoon club and their husbands by John L. McNab last Saturday afternoon, as the character in the story, "The Other Wise Man," from the pen of Henry Van Dyke, ambassador to the Netherlands during the Woodrow Wilson administration.

In the dramatic manner familiar to spectators in San Francisco court rooms, John L. McNab recounted the difficulties that beset the fourth wise man and kept him almost to the day of his death striving toward the goal of his ambition. That ambition and desire was to reach the throne of the King of Kings, whose coming had been revealed to him.

Replace Worn Tires, Advises Fred Yates, Local Tire Expert

Smooth tires are a menace to driving safety and particularly dangerous now, says Fred Yates, well known local tire authority.

"The next four months are the most dangerous driving months of the year. Yet many car owners plan to wait until spring to buy new tires, a habit that probably was formed in the days when cars were laid up during the winter.

"From every angle it's good business to replace smooth, thin tires now. Winter means wet, slippery streets and roads and certainly makes it more important that you drive on tires with a sharp, deep, non-skid tread. Punctures and tire trouble are bad at any time, but worse on a cold, rainy night. Many car owners will be surprised to hear that it is not economical to wait until spring, because tires bought now will give longer service than those broken in during the hot months."

The terrific toll of automobile accidents has aroused the country and many accident prevention plans will undoubtedly be put into effect. Every car owner can make at least one move toward safer driving by checking his tires, and replacing smooth, dangerous tires now.

The club will enter its fourth year on the first Tuesday in next March. Presidents who have served are Mrs. Emily Miller, Mrs. Velma Gibson and Mrs. Maud Elledge, all of whom represent pioneer families of the valley.

Mrs. Carrie Perkins' home on south State street will be the scene of the next meeting and the assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Susie Thompson and Mrs. May Remstead.

J. Priest, attendant at the Mendocino State hospital, left Monday for Eldridge, where he has accepted a like position at the state home for feeble minded.

RELIEF MAY COME IN FILING CHARGES

Legislation Sought to Cut Pay For Records in Farm Credit Loans

By RALPH H. TAYLOR
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

California farm borrowers have promise of better days ahead, with relief from many of the burdensome incidental costs of farm credit.

Such is the announcement which comes from Richard W. Young, general counsel of the Farm Credit Administration of Berkeley, in disclosing plans for legislation to eliminate exorbitant filing fees, recording costs and legal charges which have aggravated the farm debt adjustment problem in California.

Emphasizing the need of corrective legislation to cut through the maze of antiquated restrictions and legal red tape, the federal farm credit administration, and other charges will be greatly reduced, according to Mr. Young. Savings for the average farmer would amount to approximately 75 per cent of present fees, he estimates.

California's state-wide farm organizations, through their official representatives at Sacramento, are expected to present a united front in support of the program to simplify farm credit procedure.

Major proposals in the program are as follows:

1. An amendment limiting the filing of mortgages to the county of residence, in lieu of present recording requirements.

2. A nominal filing fee of 50 cents.

3. Elimination of notary acknowledgments.

4. Elimination of affidavits of good faith by both the mortgagors and the mortgagees.

5. A nominal filing fee of 25 cents for release of assignment of mortgage.

6. A filing fee of only 25 cents for subordination agreements.

7. Record searches to be made by county recorders at a nominal charge of 25 cents per party for each year covered by the search.

8. Statute of limitations of four years on chattel mortgages. This will eliminate the necessity of searching titles for more than the 4-year period.

9. Growing crops will not constitute part of the real estate. Under the present law crops are considered as real property until severed, and, as such, title passes to a purchaser at a sheriff's or trustee's sale in case of foreclosure. This makes it necessary to procure subordination agreements from beneficiaries under trust deeds or holders of real property mortgages. Where liquidation of the loan is not contemplated within the time required for the completion of the foreclosure, this new amendment will eliminate the necessity of subordination agreements.

If the proposed legislation is adopted, Mr. Young declares that the average cost to the farmer in securing a loan through a Production Credit association would be about as follows. Filing fee of mortgage, 50 cents; filing fee of subordination agreement, 25 cents; filing fee for release of mortgage, 25 cents; title report, $2. Total cost, $3.

To the hard-pressed, debt-ridden farmer, seeking to adjust his burden and rehabilitate his business, the new legislation promises relief at a time when it is vitally needed.

The Devil has a way with men;
We have a way with cake
That makes what we turn out for you
As good as you can bake.
For instance, if you come to us
We'll show you something good:
We bake a cake to beat the Devil—
Fit for Gods — it's Angel Food!

Try This Cake! If it doesn't drive the Devil away then nothing will. Not only that. It will drive all care away from you. ROTHSPRACK'S Angel Food Cake is something to enjoy.

It is ordered that this board purchase from Ira Thompson and Kate Thompson, his wife, real property situated in Mendocino county, California, along the northwest coast thereof, which said property is particularly described in that certain resolution passed by this board on December 20, 1934, to which reference is hereby made for more and further details, for road, public pleasure grounds and other public purposes, for the sum of $3,500 payable out of the County General No. 4, 1934 fund of Mendocino county. Past Year Busy Time For Superior Court

During 1934 there were 459 actions started in the Mendocino county Superior court. Of these 225 were civil cases, 153 were probate actions, and criminal charges were brought against 81 persons. These figures are taken from the records in the office of County Clerk Harry M. Burke, and do not include actions in the juvenile court.

In this connection the record of Superior court proceedings are interesting. During the past 12 months 1090 matters were shown on the calendar of the court. Over half of these were matters of probate. Separated, the records are as follows:

Demurrers	218
Orders to show cause and moton for divorce	92
All other orders to show cause	142
Preliminaries—juvenile	31
Habeas Corpus	13
Probate—contested	47
Probate—uncontested	530
Probate—contested (not defendant's)—tried	17

Court was in session 158 full days during the year, with 77 part-day sessions.

County Clerk Burke has found that 2,447 registered voters failed to exercise their rights at the last election and automatically are removed from the registration lists and must register again to vote at the next election. Of the total 13,000 registrations in 1934, approximately 10,000 voted.

Laytonville Pays Loving Tribute to Oldest Inhabitant

LAYTONVILLE, Jan. 7.—Samuel Pinches, the oldest living resident of Long valley, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alice Simpson of San Francisco, last Friday night. A few days before Christmas Mr. Pinches made the trip to the city for the purpose of spending the holidays with his daughter and when he left here was enjoying very good health for a man of his years. About a week ago he contracted pneumonia and this, combined with the infirmities of old age, caused his death. Deceased was one of the best known residents of the northern part of the county and will probably be best remembered by strangers as the last elderly man who wore a long, well-kept, full beard, although this was a custom up to about 40 years ago.

Samuel Pinches was born in Herefordshire, England, May 4, 1850. When 16 years of age he moved to London and learned the trade of malster (English for brewer) which trade he followed until 1871, when he tired of city life and returned to his old home. Shortly afterwards he married Sarah Jones. Immediately following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Pinches, accompanied by her mother and two sisters, came to America and arrived at what is now Laytonville in August, 1871. One of his wife's aunts, Mrs. Elizabeth Seargent, who is said to have been the first white woman in Long valley, owned a 320-acre ranch where Laytonville is now located and Mr. Pinches was immediately placed in charge of the ranch and in the course of time he and his wife inherited it. Shortly after their arrival four acres of the ranch at the intersection of the two main highways was platted as a townsite and became what is now Laytonville. Prior to this time Cahto was the business center of all that region.

Mrs. Pinches died a few years ago, but not until some years after she and her husband had lived to celebrate their golden wedding. Ten children were born to this union, seven of whom are living and all but one of whom resides in this county. They are: Mrs. Gertrude Ray, Mrs. Adah Bowman, Mrs. Lillian Woodruff, Mrs. Lesa Cole, Mrs. Alice Simpson, George and Oswald Pinches. Besides these there are 34 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

The funeral services were held from his late home in Laytonville, Monday afternoon, Elder J. M. Cole, assisted by Chaplain G. H. Jones, officiating, with L. P. Anker in charge of the arrangements. It was one of the largest funerals ever held in Long valley and there were numerous handsome floral offerings. There were delegations from both Willits and Ukiah.

The Willits delegation consisted of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jones, Mabel Shimmin, H. B. Muir, Ora Thelen, Ed Purdy, M. Leak, Fred Loring, and all of Mr. Pinches' relatives.

Mrs. Nina Banker of Ukiah, Mrs. Pierson, Miss Sue Bowman and Miss May Bowman of San Francisco, all granddaughters of the deceased and Ralph Byrnes of Ukiah were among the many present.

Eleanore Jackson Has Returned Home

After eleven weeks confinement, six of which were spent in the Healdsburg hospital, Miss Eileanore Jackson, Cloverdale school teacher who was the victim of the drunk driving escapade of Grover Dorr of Ukiah, is back home to spend many more weeks of semi-invalidism before she will be fully recovered from the experience.

Miss Jackson had five ribs broken and four cracked, a broken pelvis bone and several facial and scalp injuries. For a time physicians despaired of saving her life.

After six weeks in the hospital at Healdsburg, she spent five weeks in the home of her aunt in that city before being able to return to Cloverdale.

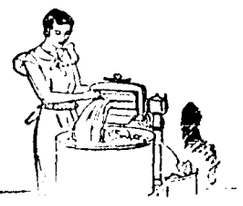
"WHY I LEFT THE PORCH LIGHT ON ALL NIGHT."

And my, how this lady worried about it. But it wasn't worth worrying about because with ½ Off on Extra Electricity, a 60 watt lamp will burn 24 hours for 1¢.



"YOU KNOW I DID A LOT OF WASHING LAST MONTH."

Now this lady took us at our word—that ½ Off on EXTRA Electricity was cheap electricity. She ran her electric washer 12 EXTRA hours in December, and although she couldn't notice it, her bill was only seven cents higher for all that extra service from her electric washer.

"JACK SAT UP TO ALL HOURS STUDYING."

Then, too, Jack had one of the new Better Sight study lamps with a 200 watt globe. His studying was made easier and he got better grades in all his subjects. It was certainly worth that penny a night for better sight with ½ Off on Extra Electricity.

"THE HOUSE WAS A MESS AFTER CHRISTMAS."

What house isn't quite messy after the tree is taken down! Then out comes the vacuum cleaner to get rugs and furniture, walls and drapes, all spick and span again. An extra thorough job can be done this January with the low cost ½ Off EXTRA Electricity. 22 hours of electric cleaning for 10¢.

"I THOUGHT AN ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR COST MORE THAN THAT TO OPERATE."

Hundreds of women are surprised each month to find that the marvelous electric refrigerator cost so little to keep going. But think how cheap it now is to operate on ½ Off EXTRA Electricity. A full month of 50 degree refrigeration for 80¢.

IMMEDIATE BONUS DEMAND OF CHIEF

Legion Commander in Strong Plea For Payment at Santa Rosa

Ukiah Legionnaires who attended the meeting of the Theodore Roosevelt Post No. 21 of Santa Rosa and heard National Commander Frank L. Belgrano, last Saturday evening, were Ray Rollin Wilson, commander of Lewis White post, Joseph Figone, Fred Figone, W. A. German, D. G. Macmillan and William Schmidt.

Immediate payment of the soldier's bonus is being advocated by the American Legion as a means of relieving the depression, Belgrona told the audience of more than 700 Sonoma county Legionnaires, their wives and frends.

In explaining the Legion's change in policy, the newly-elected national leader said that since the government is spending billions for relief and recovery measures it could pay debts instead of creating more by passage of the Patman bonus bill providing early payment of adjusted compensation certificates.

Belgrano's stirring address, in which he touched on the major points in the Legion's program, including the bonus, described as the "most controversial subject in the United States," the Legion's demand for adequate national defense, its activities in child welfare, Americanization and community service, was enthusiastically received by his auditors.

"If industry needs new financial stimulus, payment of the bonds will provide it without creating a debt," Belgrano said. "Money spent to discharge this obligation will not be hidden in a veteran's sock. It will not be tucked under his mattress or stored away in savings banks; it will go to pay bills, long overdue, at the corner grocery; to pay overdue rents; it will go to hard-pressed merchants to pay the obligations of harder pressed veterans.

Education was stressed as one of the most important Legion activities in the national commander's brief summary of what is being done by the veterans' organization.

"There must be no curtailment of our schools. Boys and girls are born during depressions, as well as in boom times and it is our duty to see that they are given a fair start in life by giving them the best possible school and college training. Roads and public works can wait, if necessary, but education of our youth must go on."

His address was concluded with an eloquent appeal for Americanization.

"Europe can have its Fascism, Radicalism, Hitlerism, Socialism, Communism and all the other 'isms', but here, in the United States, there is room for only one—Americanism!

"While we sit here tonight in this patriotic gathering, other meetings are being held, where subversive programs are being carried on—where plans are being made to tear down our flag and destroy our form of government.

"We of the Legion feel that we have the right to call on every man, woman and child to join in our great effort to defend this flag and protect this government of yours and ours. We invite you to join with a million Legionnaires and 500,000 mothers, members of the Auxiliary of the American Legion, in this fight for your country."

Belgrano was introduced by Wallace L. Ware, state railroad commissioner and friend of 20 years' standing. Ware revealed that his late father and Frank N. Belgrano, sr., were organizers of the old Fugazi bank in San Francisco and that a life-long friendship had existed between the Ware and Belgrano families.

The meeting was opened by C. J. Tauzer, past commander of the Santa Rosa post. Selections by the American Legion band opened the program, following which the meeting was called to order with presentation of the colors.

Among distinguished Legionnaires and Auxiliary members as guests were Mrs. Carrie Baade of Napa, president of the department of the American Legion Auxiliary; Boyd Stutler of Washington, D. C., secretary to Belgrano; James Fisk, department adjutant of San Francisco; E. M. (Dinty) Moore, vice area commander; Elmer Zollner, chairman of the distinguished guests committee of the department of California; Don Burbeck, Fifth district commander; Ed Bolt, manager of the California Legionnaire magazine; Floyd Helmick, Seventh district commander; Thomas Riordan, department judge advocate; Col. Nelson Holderman, commander of the Yountville Veterans' home, and Nate Coombs, past department commander.

An informal dinner at the Occidental hotel, at which Ware presided as toastmaster, preceded the open meeting. Approximately 100 Legionnaires attended the banquet. Following the meeting the crowd returned to the hotel, where a complimentary dance was given by the management.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

In all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., a Lesson-Sermon will be read Sunday, January 13, on the subject "Sacrament."

The Golden Text will be: "A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another" (John 13: 34, 35). Bible selections include the following passages from Matthew 5: 1, 2, 6, "And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, . . . Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled."

A passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, which reads as follows: "The habitual struggle to be always good is unceasing prayer. LETTERS to the Editor

Editor Dispatch-Democrat:

NO REVIVAL

Where is that fine frenzy of religious fervor that so rocked the State last fall when it seemed that a certain candidate for Governor might be elected? At that time it seemed that our largest corporations and our greatest newspapers were disturbed over an alleged dangerous man, an attacker of churches! A great religious revival loomed. No more would pastors address nearly empty pews and disconsolately eye equally empty contribution boxes. At last brotherly love was to be the motivating factor of men's actions. We expected the tidal wave of religious feeling to penetrate even to us here in Ukiah. But what do we see now?

The churches of this community are struggling desperately against the current of indifference to morality and spirituality that is engulfing us. The churches, with their Bible schools, are the last bulwark against the spirit of immorality, intemperance, and ungodliness that is filling our penitentiaries, and insane asylums, and is making our public highways more deadly than the No Man's Land of World War infamy.

The Chamber of Commerce, and business men generally, are aware of the value of the church to the community. Decent people do not care to live and raise their children where the refining influence of the church is not present. Thus churches are undeniable assets to any community, and business suffers when the church is forced to withdraw.

The depression has hit the churches and they are barely able to pay meager salaries to their ministers. So there is a splendid opportunity for civic minded persons to help. A little money right now would be very cheering to any of the congregations in Ukiah.

HOWARD S. McCANDLESS,

NOTE:—In the above tabulation of the tides the daily tides are given in the order of their occurence, commencing with the early morning tides in the left hand column and the succeeding tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur, the fourth occuring on the following morning.

The column of heights gives the elevation of each tide above or below the level of the Coast Survey chart soundings. The numbers are always additive to the chart depth.

The data is practically the same for Point Arena Light, Navarro River Entrance, Little River Harbor, Mendocino Bay and Fort Bragg Landing. For Westport subtract 5 minutes from the time and for Shelter Cove add 0.8 ft. to high tide.

FARMER LEARNS BUSINESS METHODS

Most urban residents probably still think of the American farmer as an easy-going fellow, with little knowledge of or interest in business practices and methods, who lives from the land and doesn't involve himself in financial statements or bookkeeping systems.

That picture is rapidly losing verisimilitude. The Farm Credit administration recently announced that over a million farmers, during the past year and a half, turned in complete financial statements when applying for loans. And, according to the Dairymen's League News, at least a million more farmers kept such records for other reasons. Business methods are as much a part of the operation of a modern farm as of a factory.

This is representative of a great evolutionary period in agricultural history, which began ten or fifteen years ago and is gathering momentum still. The up-to-date farmer realizes that economics, finance, monetary problems, tariff legislation and similar matters exert a vital influence on his own personal affairs. He is studying and learning, and he is keeping books. Where his father may have gone for years without knowing whether he was making money or losing it, he knows precisely how his farm is going.

The influence of cooperative associations has been particularly potent in developing farm management along these lines. The co-ops, by bringing specialized knowledge and sound methods to the administration of farm problems, have made great progress—and individual farmers are following the lead.

MAJOR CRIME IS ON THE RUN

The greatest fight on crime ever attempted in this nation is now being carried on by the federal government—and that is one of the new federal activities which meets with unqualified support of all the people. So far, the government has been extremely successful. Its agents have eliminated a number of underworld kings—have frightened others into hiding. Where, in many cases, local police are corrupted, federal men are moved continually about from place to place to insure that they will make no undesirable connections, will not be known to the criminal element. Where local police are often inefficient, federal men are college-trained, are instructed in chemistry, ballistics, all the subjects that make successful crime fighters. Where a small force of local officials could sometimes be intimidated, that is impossible with federal men, because their number is not limited, and the criminal who does "bump off" a federal agent, can look forward to two more immediately taking his place. The whole power of the federal government, with its unlimited resources in money, men and equipment, is turned loose to effect his capture and execution.

Hands Across the Sea, that picked $12,000,000,000 from Uncle Sam's pockets, are reaching still for his coat tails to drag him into the League of Nations—through the Back Door—probably hoping for another chance at his pocketbook.

After witnessing the runoff of the many recent downpours of rain in this valley in the past week, the idea is impressed that the drainage systems in Noah's day must have been very poor, or the 40-day drizzle wouldn't have floated the Ark.

There is a bit of hilarity in the threat to fine recipients of federal relief $5,000 to $10,000 for unauthorized diversion of supplies.

Cohen Asks $12,000 Damages For Wreck

For damages arising from a collision between his truck and the car driven by A. W. Garrett, Healdsburg hardware dealer, on the highway near Geyserville December 13, David Cohen of Fort Bragg and Ukiah is suing for $12,600.

The complaint alleges that the truck was damaged to the extent of $1,400, that Cohen suffered a $1,125 loss because he was deprived of the use of the machine, and he asks $10,000 general damages for injuries sustained in the crash, alleging contusions of the thigh, other injuries and shock. The truck was carrying a load of fruit and vegetables from San Francisco to Fort Bragg when crashed by the Garrett car, which skidded on the west pavements, according to the report of the highway patrolman who investigated the accident.

Cohen is represented by J. M. Phillips of San Francisco.

Palace Liquor Store Sold to R. W. Hart

R. W. Hart, who has been in charge of the Palace Liquor Store, in the Palace hotel building, during the past year, this week purchased the stock from W. F. Sandelin and will continue the business in its location on Smith street.

Mr. Hart is well known to Ukiahans, having former connections with the Cecille hotel bar and operating a soft drink establishment there after prohibition. He asks a continuance of the patronage given the Palace Liquor Store during the past year.

Sol Cohen and Harold Zimmerman spent several days in San Francisco last week on matters pertaining to their local business.

convention at Santa Rosa next week.

Chairman W. K. Davis presided at the meeting.

Members were present from Willits, Upper Lake and Potter Valley.

Following are some of the ideas stressed by Worswick in his address:

At the present rate of advance in business that the chain stores are doing, by 1945 they will be doing 87% of all business in the United States.

As Emerson said, "There never has been anything great accomplished without enthusiasm."

If you do not believe fully in this movement and intend to do your part it is best you stay out, because you will be only a detriment to the cause.

Make all traveling men show their cards. This matter is very essential as it is by this means that the home office can carry on—therefore you should be very stern in your demand for their credentials even though you sometimes must bring 'high pressure' to bear upon them.

To be a loyal and worthy member remember that if you don't trade with your neighbor what right have you to ask him to trade with you.

Your success and your future depends on the success of your employer so does the success of your employer depend on you, it is therefore essential on your part to see that his business is built up and you must stand behind him and help support him if you want him to succeed.

The first week in February will be a drive on the institutions of the city to make purchases from the Home-Owned stores.

A one and one-half minute moving picture talkie will be sponsored by the Home-Owned Businesses.

A training class in salesmanship will be conducted here by Mr. Worswick showing how important personality is and how to put our stores in order. Any employee who is not interested in bettering himself to the extent of attending these lectures for one week is not deserving of keeping a job. No one is perfect and everyone should be interested in bettering himself. One poor employee is to an organization, no matter how large, as a weak link is in a chain.

Remember two important things and live up to them—

(1) Your boss is not the man who writes out your check. The boss is the man who walks through your door with the money. He makes your business possible—without him you have no business.

(2) Your customers come to your store as invited guests through advertisements and window displays, etc. Use him as you would a guest in your own home.

Lakeport Enthused By McNab Address

John L. McNab, noted San Francisco attorney and orator, proved himself an able genius in dramatizing before the Lakeport Rotary club at the postponed meeting held on Friday noon at Hotel Lakeport. The speaker, who was the guest of his old friend, Attorney Herbert V. Keeling, related in his own composition the Van Dyke story of "The Four Wise Men."

The large dining room of the hotel was substituted for the usual meeting room of the Rotarians because of necessity to accommodate the large attendance at the special occasion.

The story as related by Mr. McNab, was beautiful in every detail and great compliment was paid the speaker by the Rotarians. Mr. Keeling also paid Mr. McNab high compliment in behalf of the Rotarians and extended appreciation for the visit of the great San Francisco civic leader.

Mr. McNab owns considerable interests in Mendocino county and also in the vicinity of Blue Lakes, in Lake county. A cordial invitation was extended to him to visit more frequently in this section, and especially the Rotary club.—Lakeport Bee.

Scorns to Pay Fine; Hopland Man Jailed

Charles Jones of Hopland, who was released on $250 bail, after his auto had crashed into two parked cars in Santa Rosa December 10, and who was sought on a bench warrant after failing to pay a $100 fine imposed by the Santa Rosa police judge, surrendered himself at the police station in that city last Friday and was ordered to the county jail for 50 days in lieu of the fine.

Jones, who is a Hopland hop grower, and a member of a widely known Sonoma county family, drove his car into the two parked cars with such force as to drive them onto the sidewalk, after which, it is said, he left the scene of the wreck for a beer parlor and another drink. He was booked for drunk driving and released on bail.

Upper Lake Cagers Drop Two to Ukiah

At the close of the first half of the A game the score was 25 to 4, and the close of the game found the visitors on the short end of a 45 to 6 score. The B team won their game with the same ease, although not with so large a score. The final chalk-up showed them a 25 to 8 winner.

In the scoring of the A game Weatherhead accounted for 17 points, Ledeboer 10, Rawles 8, Weselsky 6, Ivey 4. Kinsler led the scoring for the B's with 8 points, followed by Russel with 6 and Van Dyke with 5.

The three local teams—A, B, C—will go to Mendocino tonight to engage the coast boys for the first time this season. This, too, will be a practice game, but as in the others so far this season, the results will be an indication of how the scheduled game will turn out later, when the same teams meet.

'Bride For a Night' Failed to Prosecute

Because his wife, Mrs. Ruth Celoni, failed to appear in assault charges brought against Fausto Celoni of Fort Bragg, the complaint was dismissed at Santa Rosa last week.

The alleged assault took place in the Sonoma county seat three weeks ago, after Mrs. Celoni had assertedly left her husband, following a Reno wedding, which she claimed was for one night only. In leaving Celoni, the bride took an automobile which had been given her as a wedding present. The husband followed her to Santa Rosa, and after futile attempts to induce her to return to him, demanded the return of the car. When this was also refused the assault took place, in the woman's apartment.

After the beating the woman was removed to a hospital, where it was for a time thought she had received serious injuries. Celoni was arrested and was at liberty under $500 bonds, when the case went by default because the bride failed to prosecute. In the meantime she had filed suit for divorce.

Ray Whitesides of Potter Valley is a new attendant at the Mendocino State hospital and is making his home with his sister, Mrs. Ed Howell of Talmage.

Mrs. George Gibson, Potter Valley Lady, In Ukiah Hospital

Mrs. George W. Gibson of Potter Valley slipped and fell in the street in front of Gavin's store at that place about 3:30, Wednesday afternoon, January 2, and sustained a serious injury—a complete fracture of the femur or thigh bone near where it begins to enlarge to form the ball and socket joint of the hip. She was brought to the Ukiah General hospital under the direction of Dr. L. K. Van Allen, who was called to attend her.

The temporary cast has been supplanted by a new type of splint, which so far as the attending surgeon knows is the first used in this locality. It is adjusted to both knees and thus the injured thigh is utilized to assist in immobilizing the other. The X-ray shows the bone in perfect alignment, and the doctor holds out every hope that the patient will recover satisfactorily.

Mrs. Gibson is a pioneer woman of Potter Valley where she is respected and generally beloved. Dr. Henry Gibson, a successful dentist of Honolulu, is her only child. She spent a winter with him and his family at their insular home three years ago. Mrs. Bonnie Thornton and children on the occasion of their holiday visit to the Hawaiian Islands visited Dr. Gibson family and brought greetings from them to their relatives and friends on the mainland. L. T. Mustard of this city is a foster son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gibson.

Mr. Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Sides were in from Potter Valley to visit Mrs. Gibson, Wednesday. Her host of friends are eagerly hoping for her early and complete recovery.

Next Sunday morning the sermon subject will be, "The Reality of Prayer." In the evening the subject will be, "The Touch of His Mighty Hand." Special music at both services.

Won't you try our welcome?

C. F. MOSHER, Pastor.

CONFIRMED IN POST

To avoid any question of technical violation, the board of supervisors, at their meeting last Monday, re-appointed ... R. O'Brien as director of the Golden Gate Bridge district. Because the first appointment of Mr. O'Brien, made two weeks previously, was made before a vacancy existed, the supervisors took the second action to make his title clear.
